

I have heard on the news that our nocall list is being threatened and I am very concerned about it. I am enjoying my privacy at home with no phone call on the weekends and during supper try to sale something. I believe our home phone should be private. If we want to buy something we would search the enternet and go to a store to do so. Please, try to work to keep our nocall list .

Please
Theresa A. Smith